SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

This presentation contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as "believes," "plans," "expects," "anticipates," "will," "should," "positioned" and words of similar import. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding Medicine Man Technologies, Inc.'s (the "Company") operations, financial performance, business or financial strategies, or achievements.

Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future results or performance. Instead, they are based only on the Company's current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding the future of the Company's business, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of the Company's control. Actual outcomes and results and the Company's financial performance and condition may differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements. Therefore, you should not rely on any of these forward-looking statements.

Important factors that could cause actual results and financial condition to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements include, among others, the following: the Company's ability to raise capital to finance any of its proposed acquisitions; the Company's ability to close on any of its proposed acquisitions; the Company's ability to successfully integrate and achieve its objectives with respect to any of its proposed acquisitions; the Company's ability to successfully execute its business, financial and growth strategy; the Company's ability to expand into additional states; the Company's ability to successfully offer new products, services and other offerings; the Company's ability to successfully implement its revenue growth strategy, generate cash flow from operations and achieve positive shareholder returns. Any forward-looking statement in this presentation is based only on information currently available to the Company and speaks only as of the date of this presentation. The Company disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking statement or to announce publicly the results of any revisions to any forward-looking statement to reflect future events or developments except as required by law.

The unaudited preliminary pro forma results and other financial information discussed in this presentation consists of estimates derived from the Company's internal books and records and has been prepared by, and are the responsibility of, the Company's management. The preliminary financial data are subject to the completion of financial closing procedures, final adjustments and other developments that may arise between now and the time the financial results for the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2019 are finalized. Therefore, actual results may differ materially from these preliminary financial data and all of these preliminary financial data are subject to change.

I. Executive Summary

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Medicine Man Technologies, Inc. (OTC Ticker: "MDCL") is aggregating a premier portfolio of Colorado cannabis companies, positioning MDCL as one of the largest vertically-integrated operators in the state and a platform to lead consolidation and growth of cannabis in the U.S.

Overview

Medicine Man Technologies, Inc. ("Medicine Man Technologies" or the "Company") provides an established platform to facilitate the acquisition of companies under the leadership of CEO Justin Dye and his seasoned team

- Since 2014 and headquartered in Denver, CO, the Company has historically provided consulting services, nutrients and supplies
 - Upon legislation allowing outside investors into Colorado, the Company instituted a plant touching strategy backed by Dye Capital
- Justin Dye, former Albertsons Companies executive and Cerberus Capital operating executive, leads a best-in-class management team bringing Fortune 500 backgrounds and M&A / integration expertise
 - The management team is primed to buy, integrate and synergize the portfolio of assets with a deep bench of cannabis entrepreneurs
- During the past year, the Company has entered into agreements to acquire 11 companies, which when closed will result in a scalable, vertically integrated Colorado operator
 - All of the targets have a proven track record and are well positioned in their respective markets
- By establishing optimized operating procedures across the platform, the Company expects to extract significant benefits
 - The retail strategy will implement product mix optimization, increased foot traffic technologies, targeted loyalty marketing and other sophisticated operating strategies
- For FYE 2019, the Company estimates pro forma revenue and EBITDA margins of $144MM⁽¹⁾ and ~20%-30%, respectively

Vertically Integrated Operations

By the Numbers

Note: These figures are unaudited and represent the Company's current estimates. These figures are subject to adjustment and change upon completion of the audits for each of the entities included therein

(1) Revenue after elimination of $26MM of intercompany payments. PCAOB / Quality of Earnings audits currently underway, anticipated for completion April 2020

(2) Avg. revenue by dispensary based on FYE 2019 retail revenue / total expected retail stores post Colorado Rollup

SIGNIFICANT OPERATOR WITH KEY DIFFERENTIATION

Following successful closings of its announced acquisitions, MDCL will be the 6th largest U.S. vertically integrated cannabis operator in the nation by revenue, with positive EBITDA – a key differentiator versus the industry

Legacy Cannabis

- Aggregated significant capital at unsustainable multiples
- Deployed capital intensive multi-state strategies
- Inefficient operating structures with limited profitability
- Limited operating experienced management teams

The MDCL Difference

- Very attractive entry points
- Single mature state maximizes economies of scale
- Aggregating assets with track records of revenue and profitability
- Current team has a track record of success working together

Last Twelve Months Revenue and EBITDA⁽¹⁾

Under his leadership, Starbuds has become one of the most recognized and successful retail cannabis operations in North America. In 2014, Brian founded Starbuds Consulting, a consulting company providing strategic advice to start-up cannabis operations.

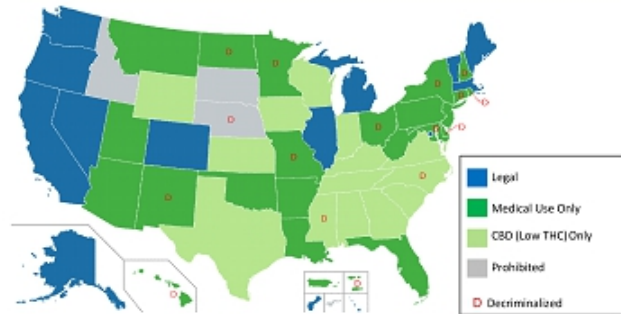

2.0 FUNDAMENTAL ATTRACTIVE MARKET

Colorado is an attractive geography to start our story, where market participants are sophisticated, profitable and have weathered the boom and bust economic cycle of early cannabis

Commentary

- CO is the 2nd largest U.S. cannabis market and continues to grow: $1.6Bn of revenue today, with anticipated growth to ~$1.9Bn by 2022⁽¹⁾
- $12.9Bn revenue U.S. market today, projected to nearly double by 2022 to $23.5Bn⁽¹⁾
- 11 states have legalized recreational cannabis, 33 states legalized medical cannabis and 47 states legalized low THC
- Many experts believe the U.S. Government will ease restrictions on States' Rights to legalize cannabis, including clarification on States Act, banking laws and/or outright legalization, but clearly no guarantees

Legalization Momentum Continues to Expand

Cannabis Poised to Surpass many Prominent U.S. Industries⁽²⁾
